

PV roof system

PV roof systems for a grocery retailer

A rollout solution for a grocery retailer was implemented at more than 115 branches within Europe. The customer's requirements included a reduction of energy costs, a self-consumption with green energy and a Corporate Social Responsibility improvement. E-mobility solutions with either a fast charging or e-bike station are available for the customers' at all European branches. These stations are powered by the PV roof systems.

Project Facts

|                      |                              |
|----------------------|------------------------------|
| Industrial solutions | E-mobilityPV roof system |
| Completion           | 2017                         |